

About the Speaker

Our speaker for the weekend is marriage and family counselor, Doug Britton, and his wife, Susan. Doug has helped thousands of people since entering the counseling field in 1967, and has also trained hundreds of professionals and paraprofessionals in numerous seminars and workshops.

When he writes and speaks, Doug draws not only from his professional work, but also from his own personal struggles and victories. He and Susan had separated in 1966 and almost divorced, but over time they learned how to apply God's Word to their marriage. Now they have a great relationship as they enjoy life together. Their hobbies include scuba diving, backpacking, and spending time with their grandchildren.

Doug has a Master's Degree in Educational Psychology and has a heart for teaching people how to apply the Word of God in insightful, practical ways. His passion is to help people to see that the Bible offers us the foundation for a rewarding and meaningful life.

I enjoyed last year's marriage conference tremendously. I came away with tools to bring into a relationship to grow and keep a marriage strong.

Last year's conference served as a starting point to open our marriage to growth. Thanks so much.

Discovering the Keys to a Great Marriage

A Marriage Conference for Your Encouragement

February 6 & 7, 2004
First Baptist Church
Davis, California

Sessions

The Power of Forgiveness

Perhaps one of the greatest threats to any marriage is unresolved resentment. In this session, we will learn how to forgive even when we don't feel like forgiving. We'll also discover how to establish an atmosphere of renewal in the marriage relationship.

A Climate for Change

Growth in a marriage necessitates change. Often the way we try to make change backfires. How do we make positive changes in our marriage without alienating our spouse? In this session we'll learn the key to making positive lasting change.

Ships in the Night

Marriage is often like two ships in the night. We pass by but have trouble connecting in a meaningful way. Some of our best intentions to please our spouse fall short or seem unappreciated. In this session we will discover some of the most important needs of your spouse - needs that you may not yet know about.

Marriage and Faith

Does our faith in Christ play a role in our marriage relationship? The answer is a resounding "Yes!" Yet, many couples neglect one of the most integral components of a spiritually rich marriage. In this session we will explore this all-important aspect that is sure to transform any marriage.
